US Territorial Capital, 1790-1792
200 Hyder Hill Rd
Piney Flats, Tennessee

Spirit of the Harvest Oct. 18

Join the Cobb family and their friends as they celebrate the harvest. Blacksmiths will be in the blacksmith shop, watch as volunteers and staff make soap, apple butter and apple cider on the historic site. Storytelling and other activities will take place throughout the day.

Cost: $5.00 for everyone aged five and older. Group rates are available for groups of twelve or more that make reservations. Members are admitted free. Other discounts do not apply.

Candlelight Christmas Dec. 5,6,12,13

Join the Cobb family as they celebrate Christmas in the 18th century, before the heavy commercialization we know today. For the Cobbs 1791 was a special Christmas; Governor Blount has just returned to Rocky Mount, bringing his family from North Carolina. Music, dancing, decorations, and sacred tales will all be part of your experience on this magical candle-lit evening.

Time: Tours begin at 4:30 each night. The last tour starts at 8:00. Reservations are highly recommended.

Cost: $7.00 for adults and $5.00 for children ages three to seventeen. Group rates are available for groups of twelve or more that make reservations. Members are admitted at a discount. Other discounts do not apply.
